Community Preservation Act (CPA) FY24 Applications to be Presented at Virtual Public Meetings

New Bedford, MA -- Mayor Jon Mitchell and the Community Preservation Committee (CPC) invite all interested community members to review the FY24 Community Preservation Act (CPA) applications submitted for funding consideration and to provide public comment at three virtual public meetings in January.

The FY24 application process began in September with Step I: Eligibility Determination. Eligible applicants were invited to submit Step II: Project Applications in November. Twenty-two applications seeking over $2.9 million in CPA funding were received by the deadline. For FY24, there is $2.2 million available to be awarded by the CPC. During January, the CPC invites applicants to present their projects at a public meeting and allows the community to comment in this public setting. Once the CPC has completed its application review, the committee will vote on the projects to recommend for funding and submit their recommendations to the City Council for their consideration and vote.

About the Community Preservation Act (CPA)

The Community Preservation Act (CPA) was adopted by New Bedford voters through a ballot question in November 2014. This statewide enabling legislation allows communities to create dedicated funding for: Open Space, Outdoor Recreational Facilities, Historic Preservation, and Community Housing projects in the City. Oversight of this process rests with the Community Preservation Committee (CPC), the body established by the City to oversee the CPA program in New Bedford.

Since FY18, the CPC has recommended, and the City Council has approved, 101 grants totaling over $10.3 million in CPA funding to projects that have preserved historic resources and open space; created community housing opportunities; and both improved and created recreational facilities throughout the City.
